UP's Russell Jones, Daily News Honored for News Reporting

NEW YORK (AP)—United Press staff correspondent Russell Jones was awarded the Pulitzer Prize for international reporting Monday for "his excellent and sustained coverage of the Hungarian revolt against Communist domination."

Jones, the only American newspaperman in Budapest from Nov. 11 until he was expelled Dec. 6, already had received two other awards for his coverage of the Hungarian freedom fight—the George Polk Memorial Award and a Sigma Delta Chi citation for distinguished service in foreign correspondence.

The Chicago Daily News won the award for meritorious public service by a newspaper for its exposure of fraud in the office of Illinois State Auditor Orville E. Hodge. The exposure resulted in a jail sentence for Hodge.

Wallace Turner and William Lambert of the Portland Oregonian won the prize for distinguished local reporting without pressure of deadline time. They were cited for their exposure of vice and corruption involving Portland municipal officials and officers of the Teamsters Union. Their exposes began an investigation that reached into the top echelon of the Teamsters Union and since has moved to Washington.

The staff of the Salt Lake City Tribune receives the award for local reporting under pressure of edition time for coverage of the collision of two airliners over Grand Canyon. "This was a great team job that surmounted great difficulties in distance, time and terrain," the citation said.

The prize for the best play went posthumously to Eugene O'Neill, the fourth Pulitzer Prize for the dramatist. The latest citation was for "Long Day's Journey Into Night," now playing in New York.

The prize for biography went to Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) for his book "Profiles in Courage."

There are more than 12,000 wires in the area where they are working and there will be more than 62,000 connections at the distributing frame. Upper right, Richard Banks, Eldorado, and Harold Bradley, Raleigh, are wiring end of lines running from main distributing frame to automatic equipment. In lower photo Harold Meserole, left, Fairfield, installation foreman, and Millard Lynch, district manager of General Telephone Company, are at the recording device that will answer customer when a non-existent number, a phone that has been disconnected or a phone number that has been changed, is dialed. When a non-existent number is dialed a taped voice will replay "Please consult your directory"; if telephone has been disconnected the customer will be told "That phone removed from service," and if there has been a change in a number, that information will be relayed to the customer. The equipment is manufactured by the Automatic Electric Sales Corp., Chicago, and installation in Harrisburg began late in March and several months will be required for completion. There will be 1,880 lines, to service approximately 4,600 telephones, installed, with room for considerable expansion. (Daily Register Staff Photos)

General Telephone Switching to Dial System Because of Expansion Needs

Faith in the future of Harrisburg and a continued demand for increased telephone service is responsible for the conversion to dial telephone service in Harrisburg. Millard Lynch, district manager of the Harrisburg district, General Telephone Company of Illinois, declared today.

In 1947 there were 2,850 telephones in Harrisburg. Now there are 4,450. The present equipment has practically reached its capacity, so General Telephone Company is spending a lot of money to install dial equipment so it can continue to give good service with an expanding system.

Cutting Discusses Social Security At Rotary Meeting

Facts about the old-age and survivors insurance under the social security law were presented by Lee Cutting, assistant manager of the Harrisburg social security office, at the Rotary meeting Monday at noon.

Mr. Cutting was introduced by Tom Davenport, program chairman. He spoke of the different types of benefits and what a person must do to qualify for these benefits. The recent laws expanding social security and granting payments to women at the age of 62 were discussed. Mr. Cutting stated that it was not necessary for people, who do not have a birth certificate, to secure a delayed record of birth to establish their age in order to start receiving payments. He said that any one of the three things necessary to qualify for a delayed record of birth would be sufficient to establish the age where the person can start receiving payments.

At the conclusion of his talk, Mr. Cutting answered questions from the Rotary members concerning social security.

House Advances Bills for Fixed Speed Limits and Increase in State Police

File Petition Seeking Removal Of Williams

Gibbons, Darnell
Ask Action Against Commissioner

A petition asking that Don Williams be removed as commissioner of the City of Harrisburg was filed in circuit court Monday by Claud Gibbons and Morris Darnell. Gibbons is mayor and Darnell a commissioner in the city government.

The petition was filed for them by Atty. Lloyd H. Melton following court action last Saturday in which Circuit Judge C. Ross Reynolds allowed the two to file the petition.

Reynolds ruled on an earlier petition which asked the court for permission for the two to file quo warranto proceedings against Williams on their own relation.

Today's quo warranto proceedings says Williams was a legal resident of the city of Harrisburg in April, 1955, when he was elected a city commissioner but contends that in June, 1956, Williams ceased to be a legal resident of the city by establishing his residence outside the city.

Because of this non-residence, the petition asserts, Williams is disqualified to hold office and asks that he be removed by the court.

To Erect Mercury Vapor Lights in Downtown Eldorado

The Eldorado city council Monday night agreed to go ahead with plans to erect mercury vapor lamps to replace the present boulevard lights in the downtown area of the city.

Mayor Carl Johnson said today that Illinois Power Co. engineers will start drawing plans for the lamps next week, that he expected erection in about 60 days.

He said that the power company will pay for and install the lights and furnish the labor for maintenance, that the city will pay $1,100 more each year than the present power bill, on power and maintenance material costs.

The Eldorado council also bought a new police car last night—a V-8 Chevrolet from Burnett Motor Co., which was low bidder.

New Alignment of Power in Middle East May Isolate Egypt, Syria

By United Press

Middle East dispatches hinted today at a new alignment of power that might leave Egypt and Syria isolated from the other Arab nations.

Egypt's semi-official Middle East News Agency reported from Damascus that Jordan, Iraq and Saudi Arabia are contemplating the creation of a new three-power pact.

Iraq is now a member of the Baghdad Pact. Jordan and Saudi Arabia are linked with Egypt and Syria in a four-power military alliance.

The Middle East News Agency said Jordan — which rejected the Baghdad Pact following nationwide rioting last year—is trying to persuade Iraq to quit the Baghdad Pact.

There was no confirmation of the reports, but King Saud of Saudi Arabia is paying a state visit to King Feisal of Iraq within a few days and King Hussein will follow up the visit by going to Baghdad a few days later.

Any such realignment would result in large part from King Hussein's government crisis in which pro-Soviet Syrian leaders gave refuge to Jordanian military leaders since denounced as "traitors" and Cairo radio kept up steady streams of propaganda to bolster Hussein's left wing political opponents.

United Press correspondent Joe Morris reported from Amman today that diplomats there said the isolating of Syria and Egypt from the other Arab nations had been one of the major results of the Mideast mission of U. S. special envoy James P. Richards.

Entire Series Of Measures at Passage Stage

Will Be Called For Final Vote
During the Week

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Gov. William G. Stratton's highway safety program, including bills for a fixed speed limit and a 500 man increase in the state police force, today was safely clear of its first hurdle in the House, with only three amendments.

The House advanced the entire series of highway safety bills to passage stage Monday, and administration leaders will call them for a final vote in the House this week.

Also Monday the House passed Stratton's bills to extend permanently the 1-2 cent increases in the state sales and use taxes which were imposed in 1955 on a temporary basis.

Besides the speed limit and state police increases, bills in the highway safety program would increase the drivers license fee from $1 to $3 with the additional money to go to high school driver training programs, require re-examination of drivers at the age of 70, set standards for chemical tests for drunken driving, and raise from 14 to 15 the age at which a person may obtain an instructional driving permit.

The principal amendment tacked on the speed limit bill by the House would set the limit for trucks over 8,000 pounds at 40 miles an hour at night. The bill originally called for a 50 mile limit for these trucks day or night. Stratton agreed to the amendment.

Other amendments would set a 60 mile day time limit and 50 mile night time limit for buses and give park districts authority to set limits on roads under their jurisdiction.

Rep. Joseph P. Stremleau (D-Mendota), a former La Salle County deputy sheriff, tried to kill the state police increase bill with an amendment to "strike the enacting clause." He was defeated 105-21.

The Illinois Sheriffs Assn., of which State Treasurer Elmer Hoffman is executive secretary, has promised an "all out fight" against the state police increase and is expected to renew its efforts to kill the bill when it comes up for final passage.

Stremleau said state police should be restricted to highway duties and charged that several state policemen were detailed to guard the ring at the recent Ray Robinson-Gene Fullmer fight in Chicago.

Rep. Lloyd C. Harris supported Stremleau and charged 24 state policemen had been sent into Madison County in 1954 to serve as Republican poll watchers.

The speed limit bill provides for limits of 65 miles an hour daytime and 55 miles at night for automobiles. It also sets a limit of 55 miles day or night for trucks under 8,000 pounds.

Originally the bill set a 50 mile limit day or night for trucks over 8,000 pounds. But Rep. Paul Powell (D-Vienna) said this would leave only five miles difference between the limit for trucks and cars at night and would make it dangerous for cars to attempt to pass these heavy trucks on the highway.

He offered the amendment to reduce the heavy truck limit for night time to 40 miles an hour, and Republican Majority Leader John W. Lewis Jr. said Stratton was agreeable.

The House, however, rejected by comfortable margins two amendments by Rep. C. Ed Schafer (D-Nokomis) to increase the limits for automobiles.

The speed limit bill also fixes limits of 30 miles an hour in Urbana areas, gives the Highway Division and Toll Road Commission authority to set limits at 70 miles an hour on expressways and gives counties, cities, villages and towns authority to establish limits on roads under their control.

$365,800,000 Year Boost

Committee Approves Cent Hike In First Class, Air Mail Postage

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Post Office Committee today approved the administration's request for a 1-cent increase for first class and air mail letters and postcards.

The increases would boost postal revenues $365,800,000 a year.

The action, taken at a closed door meeting, was announced by Chairman Tom Murray (D-Tenn.).

The committee Wednesday will take up the administration's request to hike second class (news, paper and magazine) and third class (advertising matter) postage rates a total of $96,200,000 in the next fiscal year.

The committee action would increase:

First class letter rates from 3 to 4 cents an ounce, to bring in $314,700,000 extra per year.

Postcard rates from 2 to 3 cents, producing $32,600,000.

Drop letter rates from 2 to 3 cents, amounting to $1,200,000.

Air mail letter rates from 6 to 7 cents, producing $17,100,000.

Air mail postcards from 4 to 5 cents, producing $200,000.

Other congressional news:

Tax Write-offs: Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey told the Senate Finance Committee widespread tax write-offs for business inevitably "postpone the day when general tax reduction can be enjoyed by all the people."

Endorsed a bill by Chairman Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.) to limit rapid tax write-offs "to strictly defense items" and said this already is the administration's general policy.

Minimum Wage: A Senate Labor subcommittee reported without recommendation a compromise bill to extend the $1-an-hour minimum wage bill to another six million workers. The compromise now goes to the full committee.

Budget: Eisenhower was reported to be preparing a major campaign to swing public support behind his embattled record peace time spending budget.

Natural Gas: The House Commerce Committee planned to open hearings on a new natural gas bill that would ease federal controls over producers of natural gas. The President vetoed a more far reaching bill last year, charging that some of the bill's supporters used "arrogant" lobbying tactics. But he said he supported the general principle of the bill itself.

Oil Field Worker Is Electrocuted

MT. CARMEL, Ill.—An oil worker was killed and another injured 12 miles north of here Monday when they came in contact with high-tension wires.

Bill G. Pritchett, 22, of Carmi, was electrocuted when he stood up atop a metal water tank where he was working at an oil-drilling operation. His head touched power lines carrying 7,200 volts.

The shock knocked him into the 14-foot high tank, killing him instantly.

A fellow worker, B. Thompson of Grayville, climbed up the structure to assist Pritchett. He too bumped into the wires. He suffered severe burns about the arms and lost several teeth when the powerful jolt knocked him from the tank.

A winch truck was used to tip the truck over and drain it so Pritchett's body could be removed. Wash County Coroner Charles L. Miller ruled, after holding an inquest, that death was due to electrocution.

Survivors include Pritchett's wife, Mary Elizabeth and his mother, Mrs. Cozart.

The body was taken to Kittinger funeral home in Carmi. Burial is to be in Kuykendahl cemetery in Hawthorne township.

Lincoln, Neb., Woman, Former U. S. Senator, Named American Mother of '57

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Hazel Hampel Abel, Lincoln, Neb., a former U. S. senator, construction company president and a long-time fighter against juvenile delinquency, today was named American mother of 1957.

Mrs. Daniel A. Poling, president of the American Mothers Committee, announced the award at the opening of the annual mothers conference here.

The American Mothers Committee, in selecting the 68-year-old mother of one son and four daughters, said Mrs. Abel fulfills the qualifications for the award as a successful mother, an active member of a religious body, a civic leader and a person qualified to represent the mothers of America.

The committee said Mrs. Abel is a woman of courage, patience, affection, kindness, understanding and home-making ability whose life and conduct exemplify the precepts of the golden rule.

For particular note, they singled out her service in the Senate and in Nebraska government.

Mrs. Abel was elected to the Senate to fill out the term of the late Dwight Griswold. She won nomination for the office over 15 men.

For many years Mrs. Abel was also noted as a leader in a man's field — construction. Rather than permit workers for the Abel Construction Co. to lose their jobs when her husband, George, died at the age of 52 in the depression year of 1937, she took over his position as president of the company. She operated the company successfully until her son had come of age and returned from military service to take over the presidency.

The committee said time spent outside the home "was never at the expense of her children."

Charles Durfee, At Age of 93, Writes 'Massa John,' Story of The Old South

By MARY LOUISE STREICH
Register Staff Writer

"Massa John," a story of the old South, just published by The Meador Press, 324 Newbury street, Boston 15, Massachusetts, paints a fascinating, authentic picture of life in Virginia during the closing days of the luxurious slave-owning plantation era.

Customs, prejudices, legal issues, and family life, both of the mansion house and the slave cabins are portrayed by the characters of this story. Without recourse to sensationalism, murder or evil beyond the everyday selfishness of human flesh, it holds the attention of the reader. Geared to the graciousness of the leisurely living of the period, peopled with kind and generous masters, its reading holds the reader spellbound by a brilliance of style, gentility of subject material and a Victorian standard of behaviour of its characters.

Incorporated are a very real picture of a progressive plantation where the master works for the good of his people with the ardor born of a New England conscience.

Charles Durfee

to inspect and admire the plantation, a runaway slave and the organizing of a militia. No phase of southern living has been overlooked.

Best of all, this remarkable book is a look into the mind of a most remarkable man, who, although he appears nowhere in the book, neither directly nor autobiographically, portrays very surely the life of a gentle of business, social and travel experience.

Charles Durfee, author, celebrated his 93rd birthday last November 21.

Son of Dr. and Mrs. William F. Durfee, nee Lucretia Moore, Charles was born in the Stonetown community of southern Illinois. Schoolteacher, attorney and abstracter for Pope county for many years, he has many friends and his love of people has given him many hours of pleasure as he listened to their anecdotes, joys and sorrows. Of this human experience, he has fashioned his book.

Dr. Claude Durfee of Golconda is his son and Mrs. James F.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God.
Psalm 42:1-2.

A casual interest is about all the average person shows toward the Infinite. It is only when we are hedged about by seas of trouble that a burning thirst appears. Too many of us are satisfied to thank God we are not as other men.

Spring Comes to Washington

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Joe McCarthy Wanted To Die; He Was Lonely And Forgotten By The Friends Who Once Took Him Up To The Mountain Top; McCarthy Wrote Letter Retracting His Onetime Charges Against Me.

WASHINGTON. — Joe McCarthy telephoned me some days before he died. He and I had not conversed since I found myself looking into his face, arms pinned to side, in the men's cloakroom of the Sulgrave Club. We were separated by the vice president of the United States.

Seven years had passed. Suddenly I picked up the telephone to hear a cheery voice as if nothing had ever happened.

"Drew," said the voice, "this is Joe McCarthy. Are you sitting down?"

"Yes," I replied, also as if nothing had ever happened.

"I wanted to make sure you were sitting down, because if you were standing up you would faint," continued Joe. "I've just put your column in the Congressional Record."

"I haven't always agreed with your column," he said, "but in this case I'm sure it's completely accurate, and I wanted to tell you in advance what I'd done so you wouldn't faint."

The column pertained to the doublecross given Israel regarding her withdrawal from the Gaza Strip and the Gulf of Aqaba. Just a short time before, Joe had led a Senate fight to keep a filmed TV report of mine on Israel from being shown in the Senate caucus room. That was how perverse he could be.

JOE WAS LONELY

I suppose no one newspaperman suffered more economically than I did from Joe McCarthy. But I felt sorry for Joe in these latter years. He had been so famous once. He was so lonely lately. He used to walk through the halls of Congress, a sheaf of handouts under his arm, offering them to newspapermen, offering to pose before the TV cameras. But his press handouts hit the wastepaper baskets and his face didn't appear on TV any more.

Once the cameramen had lined up outside his office clamoring for "one more shot." Press associations dogged his footsteps, working in shifts, never let him walk down a corridor alone.

But now he walked alone.
That was what killed Joe.
Fame is a cruel thing. It can lift you up to the mountain tops.
It can forget you at the bottom.
It can exhilarate you with seeing your name in headlines. It can leave you crushed and wondering why you are all alone.

JOE'S FRIENDS FORGOT

In Joe's case he was forgotten by the alleged friends who saw the political importance of pinning the Communist label on a Democratic administration.

It was not Father Edmund Walsh who was really responsible for taking Joe up on the mountain top. True, he first planted the idea in Joe's mind, first told him that the man who focused on Communist in the State Department would become a national hero. My attorney, Bill Roberts, was present when Father Walsh and Joe first talked.

But the subsequent, absurd idea that there were "205 card-carrying Communists known to the secretary of state" would have remained an absurd idea if certain politicians and certain publishers hadn't seen this as heaven-sent chance to pin the Communist label on Dean Acheson, thus pull down 20 years of Democratic rule.

"Suppose he finds only one Communist in the State Department," said Bob Taft, who never lifted a finger to stop Joe's witch-hunting.

Joe never did find that one Communist in the State Department.
He found some in other walks of life. But the one alleged Communist in the State Department, Val Loring, indicted for denying he was a Communist, was excused by none other than Attorney General Brownell with an apology from the court.

WHY JOE GOT ILL

Joe could have enjoyed fame much longer if he had not made the mistake of turning on the man he helped put in the White House.
When he did that, he lost newspaper support. The big publishers who once gave him headlines suddenly gave their hero no more headlines. He was attacking Ike.
Ike's army, Ike's foreign policy Ike and Dulles, he said, were soft on communism.

So Joe got the silent treatment, and that was what really killed him.

The exhilarating stimulus of the crowds, of the headlines, of the Kleig lights ruined Joe's effectiveness in his earlier days. The exhilarating stimulus of alcohol ruined his effectiveness in recent days.

These last three weeks, he had been on a literal whisky diet. He had been on it before and gone to the hospital—three times in nine months. Once he had kicked a hospital corpsman, had been kept "in restraints," had sometimes been out of his mind.

Perhaps he was haunted by the Annie Lee Mosses, the Val Lor-wins, the John Services, and John Carter Vincents. Perhaps he saw them as he lay on his hospital bed crying out in the night.

They would have been justified if they had come to haunt him. I know something of the ridicule, the abuse, the anonymous letters, the scathing phone calls, the falling away of sponsors that can come when a senator takes the privileged floor of the United States Senate to call you a Communist.

But I for one am sorry Joe died when he did. Toward the end he had begun to revert to the McCarthy he was when he first came to Washington. Toward the end he also wrote me a letter retracting that I was ever pro-Communist.
Toward the end he had started to revert once again for little business, for the farmer, for little people.
He had begun to champion little Israel. He was about to adopt another baby.

Most important of all, he had begun to make peace with his maker.

I'm afraid Joe wanted to die.
He would not have stuck to his diet of whisky had he wanted to live. Had he lived, had he forgotten the heady wine of headlines, had he been content to be just another senator, he might have undone the harm he did and become a senator who truly deserved fame.

The United States suffered 49, 151 battle casualties at the battle of Okinawa in April, 1945.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Diefenbacher, D. D.

(Written for NEA Service)

Poor ventilation makes us sleepy. It affects the normal functions of our bodies. We need a certain amount of fresh air and oxygen to burn up the impurities in our bodies. We cannot re-breathe the old air for long periods of time without having our thinking impaired.

Sometimes we open the windows and allow the fresh air from the out-of-doors to blow through the room. Sometimes we force new air into the room through vents or through filters which remove impurities. In any case we find ourselves alerted by the intake of fresh atmosphere.

Our spiritual lives become affected when we live under conditions of cramped spiritual experiences. We cannot avoid becoming spiritually sleepy if we breathe and rebreathe the atmosphere of materialism and worldly dust.
We need to open the windows of our souls and inhale the breath of eternal life.

MOTHER'S DAY

Chandler of Fort Worth, Texas, is his daughter. He has a granddaughter and a grandson and a great-granddaughter and a great-grandson. The grandson, James F. Candless Jr., of San Antonio, Texas, is a civil engineer in the employ of the Zachary Construction company. His success in the engineering field is a source of great pride to Mr. Durfee.

Mrs. Durfee is the former Edna Leonard McCandless of Gallatin county and Mr. Durfee has stepsons.

Mr. Durfee came to Harrisburg Saturday to present a copy of his book to Curtis Small of The Daily Register. He autographed the copy of his book, marked his favorite passage, then consented to an interview and to having his picture taken for the newspaper. Interested and interesting, he credited his exceptional health to his custom of dieting when he feels his appetite go dull, or feels unlike his hungry, healthy self. His longest "fast" was twenty one days at a time when he was very seriously ill a few years ago. He frequently fasts from one to three days to affect a "cure."

Perhaps next year or the next, Mr. Durfee will give us an autobiography. If so, in it will dwell the key to the strength of our American system of free enterprise.

Du Quoin Man Indicted in Pistol Slaying of Uncle

DU QUOIN, Ill. — A Perry County Circuit Court grand jury today returned murder and manslaughter indictments against Billie Carson Buntin, 23, Du Quoin, in the pistol slaying of his uncle.

Buntin, a Navy veteran and part-time lumber yard worker, was charged with slaying John Edgar Hunter, 32, Du Quoin, during a drinking party March 25.

Buntin claims the 22-caliber target pistol discharged accidentally. Buntin is held in lieu of $12,500 bond set on the two indictments.

Six indictments, three for forgery and three for operating a confidence game, were returned against Isadore Osowski, 38, Shawneetown. He is charged with writing and passing three bad checks in Du Quoin March 29. His bond was set at $6,000.

Four confidence games indictments were returned against Don and Eugene Whittington, Elkhart.

Cabinet Resigns In Italian Crisis

ROME, Italy — President Giovanni Gronchi summoned political leaders today for conferences on solving the government crisis brought on by the resignation of Premier Antonio Segni's cabinet.

Under traditional procedure he first called the presidents of the parliamentary houses, former premiers and parliamentary group leaders. But long months of political uncertainty — and possibly early elections — lay ahead.

Segni resigned his government
Monday night after Deputy Premier Giuseppe Saragat, a Social Democrat, quit the cabinet.

The remaining Christian Democrats, Republicans and Liberals in the coalition cabinet figured they were too weak to rule without Social Democratic support so Segni handed the resignation to the President.

Sen. McCarthy Is Buried with Military Honors

APPLETON, Wis. — Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, one of the most controversial senators in history, was honored by his home townsmen in funeral services today as a man "of zeal and love" who fought for "God and my country."

From 25,000 to 30,000 persons filed past the bier at the Little St. Mary's Catholic Church he had attended since boyhood, and more than 1,000 crowded the church and spilled into the street for a solemn requiem high Mass at noon.

McCarthy, who died of a liver ailment last Thursday, was buried with military honors beside his parents, Timothy and Bridget McCarthy, in St. Mary's Cemetery.

It was the third funeral service for the 48-year-old senator, who grew to manhood in this elm-shaded college town in the Fox River Valley. Services were held Monday in the U. S. Senate and St. Matthew's Catholic Church in Washington, D. C.

The Rev. Adam M. Grill, St. Mary's pastor, said in his funeral sermon that McCarthy "died not because of disease alone but principally because he exhausted himself physically for love of his fellow beings."

"Even more threatening than the atom and hydrogen bombs is the common enemy of all democracy and God-fearing people—communism," he said.

650 Fill Church

The services were held in the same brick church where McCarthy was baptized Nov. 23, 1908—nine days after his birth.

His young widow, Jean, listened to the final rites along with 21 U. S. senators, most of Wisconsin's congressmen, Gov. Vernon W. Thomson, other state officials and a delegation of state legislators.

A crowd of 650 filled the main part of the church. Loud speakers carried the service to another 400 in the basement and others outside the church.

From the church, the funeral party moved to St. Mary's Cemetery, 1 1/2 miles away, for burial. The American Legion sounded taps, the Marines fired a 20-gun salute and Marine bodyguards presented the flag draping the casket to McCarthy's widow.

The Marines remained until the casket was lowered into the ground.

Mother Fatally Shot by Son, 2

CANTON, Ill. — A loaded target pistol, left lying on the rear floor of a car, was blamed today for the death of Mrs. Evelyn Brown, 22, Canton, shot to death by her 2-year-old son.

The dead woman, estranged from the father of her boy, Randy, was riding Monday in the front seat of a car driven by Eugene J. Marlow, 28, also of Canton.

Marlow told sheriff's police that the boy in the back seat suddenly picked up the gun from the floor, pointed it at his mother and pulled the trigger.

A bullet entered the back of Mrs. Brown's head.

Stratton Signs Bill Giving Him Authority to Declare Emergencies

SPRINGFIELD — Gov. William G. Stratton has signed into law a bill to give the governor power to declare an emergency in the event of a natural disaster such as a tornado.

Such a declaration would make the state eligible to receive federal civil defense funds available for such emergencies.

The governor also signed a bill to increase from $150 to $250 the state burial allowances for veterans and their immediate families.

Complete Achievement Testing of 7th, 8th Graders in County

The office of the county superintendent of schools has just completed achievement testing of approximately 1,000 seventh and eighth graders of the county. C. R. Gardner, county superintendent, has announced.

These tests were given, he explained, to determine their rate of progress, their rank in relation to high school status and the readiness of seventh graders to take eighth grade work.

Tests given were California achievement tests and will be graded by IBM equipment at Southern Illinois University. Results will be available to teachers about May 15.

The United States has more than 454,000,000 acres under cultivation, largest area of any country in the world.

Sailor Arrives in Australia Ready to Wed, is Rejected

BRISBANE, Australia — An American sailor encountered a difference of opinion "down under" today after arriving in Melbourne aboard a U. S. destroyer with plans of marrying a Brisbane stenographer.

Peter Michalechik, 20, Chicago, a machinist's mate aboard the U.S.S. Ammen, said he had official permission to wed Marie Loughnane, 20.

Michalechik said he had corresponded with Miss Loughnane since he met her in Brisbane last October.

Marie, however, when told of the sailor's intentions, said she was not interested. She said she and Peter were only "pen pals" and that she did not want to see him.

The bewildered Michalechik said, "I proposed by letter six months ago and was a very proud man when Marie accepted."

The young seaman said he stayed in the Navy so he could return to Australia and marry Marie.

Lavagetto is Named Manager Of the Senators

DETROIT — Cookie Lavagetto today replaced Chuck Dressen as manager of the Washington Senators and Dressen was offered the job of coordinator of player personnel for the club.

Dressen did not accept the new position immediately. He said he would have to "consider" the offer.

Lavagetto and Billy Jurgens, both Washington coaches, attended the conference with Griffith and Dressen where the announcement was made.

The new manager, who received a contract which runs through the rest of the 1957 season and contains an option clause for 1958.

He went directly to Briggs Stadium to notify the Washington players of the change.

Washington has lost its last 8 starts and has won only 4 of 29 games thus far this season.

Du Quoin Woman Dies of Injuries

ST. LOUIS — Mrs. Henrietta Anderson, 86, Du Quoin, Ill., died in a hospital here Monday from injuries received when she was struck by a truck at Du Quoin, April 30.

She was treated at a hospital there then transferred to the Missouri Baptist Hospital in St. Louis.

Returns Briefcase With $7,020, Gets $5 from Owner

DETROIT — W. R. Mareches had $5 today to show for returning a briefcase containing $7,020 to its owner.

Mareches, a carpenter, said he was driving on the Willow Run Expressway outside Detroit Monday when he saw the case beside the road. He said he stopped, picked up the briefcase and waited, thinking the owner would return.

A short while later a man drove up and said: "My name's Barnett. My initials J.W.B. are on that briefcase."

Mareches said he handed the case over and that Barnett gave him $5. He then asked Mareches if he knew how much money the case contained.

"No, I haven't looked," Mareches replied.

Barnett said, "$7,020," and drove away.

Four Springfield Men Killed in Light Plane Crash

BEARDSTOWN, Ill. — Four Springfield men were killed Monday night when the light plane in which they were riding crashed in a rye field about three miles east of here.

The victims were John Reside, 38, believed to have been piloting the plane, Jack Talkington, 21, John J. Beckes, 37, and John Minser, 42.

The plane crashed in a field on the farm of Jack Harris, a cousin of Reside. Harris said he heard the crash and ran to the plane, about 250 yards from his home.

Three of the men had been thrown from the plane and one body remained in the wreckage.

The plane, a five place Cessna, had taken off from Springfield Capital Airport about 45 minutes before the crash. The plane was owned by the Capitol City Plumbing and Heating Co., Springfield, and all four men were employed by the company.

Reside was pilot of the company plane.

Guided Missiles For Formosa

TAIPEI — The U. S. Embassy announced today the American Air Force will station Matador guided missiles on Formosa. The missiles are capable of carrying atomic warheads.

A joint statement by the United States and Nationalist China said "This action is taken wholly for defensive purposes of deterring and if necessary repelling attack."

The statement made it clear the Matador unit of the U. S. Air Force is not here now. There was no indication when it will arrive.

The Matadors operate at a speed of more than 650 miles an hour and have a range of several hundred miles—enough to reach the Chinese mainland across the Strait of Formosa.

The statement said the United States and Nationalist China have agreed to the stationing of Matadors on Formosa because of the continued Chinese Communist military build-up on the mainland opposite Formosa.

The missiles will not be given to the Chinese Nationalists but will be handled by U. S. Air Force personnel. There was no indication if nuclear warheads were being sent here with the Matadors.

Christopher Man Pleads Not Guilty To Four Charges

BENTON, Ill. — Michael Toronyi, 34, Christopher, who was captured after a manhunt Sunday, pleaded not guilty to four charges at his arraignment here today.

Toronyi was charged with driving while intoxicated, resisting an officer, disorderly conduct, and leaving the scene of an accident.

State's Atty. Joseph Hickman said Toronyi's trial will probably be held the week of May 20 in Franklin County court here.

Authorities said Toronyi fled after an auto accident Sunday in which he threatened Christopher Police Chief Harlan Eldridge with a shotgun. He surrendered to officers in a woods near Buckner.

Scout Troop 13 To Conduct Coat Hanger Drive

Members of Boy Scout Troop 13, sponsored by the First Christian church, will conduct a coat hanger drive Saturday, May 11, to obtain funds for the newly organized troop.

A leader of the troop today said "If you have used clothes hangers, please bundle and place on your front steps in plain view and they will be picked up sometime Saturday after 9:30 a. m."

All profits made from the sale of the hangers will be used to purchase new equipment for Troop 13, chartered only a short time ago.

Bruno DeGiacinto is scoutmaster and Bill Braddock the assistant scoutmaster. A training program for other leaders has been completed and the troop is now ready to accept application for membership.

Plans have been completed for a camping trip to the Boy Scout Camp on Little Grassy Lake, but equipment is needed and Saturday's hanger pickup is a part of the finance campaign.

Ailments Continue In Schools, Report to School Board Shows

Ailments that have plagued students in this area during a greater part of the current school year, continued during the month of April.

An indication is given in the report of Russell Malan, superintendent of the Harrisburg City schools, given to the school board Monday evening. Average attendance in the Harrisburg schools for April was 92.32 per cent, compared with 97.30 per cent for the same month in 1956.

The same situation exists in most of the schools of this area. Mumps, severe colds, influenza and various types of measles have afflicted the students in practically epidemic proportion.

Cadillac

Third Generation at the Wheel!

"Like father, like son", the poets say.

And never was it truer than in the case of a great many fine Cadillac families.

For there are, in our land today, a number of families that currently boast as many as three generations at the wheel.

We mention this simply to underscore a great and dramatic truth about Cadillac—that, of course, is its unchanging goodness and quality.

For fifty-five years, the Cadillac name has signified one and the same thing to motorists everywhere—a motor car created at the highest level that automotive science would permit.

Over that time, Cadillac has attracted to the ranks of its owners the finest list of names to be found anywhere on the American motoring scene.

And, those who have followed the path to Cadillac in 1957 are enjoying the most abundant blessings of this ceaseless crusade for quality.

The new "car of cars", with coachcraft by Fleetwood, is beautiful and luxurious to an unprecedented degree. And its performance and handling ease are a revelation!

Certainly, the Cadillac car has now become an even wiser investment for an even wider circle of America's motorists.

John Bennewitz is Photographing Flotilla of Yachts

A fleet of luxury yachts heading back to their home ports after wintering along Florida's Gold Coast will rendezvous in Charleston, N.C., this week before continuing north.

The principal reason for the flotilla's pause in Charleston is to allow John Bennewitz, a photographer for a number of national magazines, including Life, to photograph the story of the annual northward trek. Bennewitz is a former Harrisburg man and is well known here.

The fleet will be composed of yachts ranging in size from 40 to 80 feet and headed by the Yacht Slenderella out of Stamford, Conn., captained by Edwin F. Quinn.

Bennewitz, who has been photographing the various yachts en route, will arrive aboard the Amigo, out of Philadelphia, Pa., captained by H. W. Riske, on Tuesday, May 7. The major portion of the picture story, however, will be photographed in Charleston and a brief reception has been planned for the city officials and the captains of the various yachts for Wednesday, May 8.

The Rare Adventure by BERNARD FERGUSON

Copr. 1954 by Bernard Edward Fergusson. Distributed by NEA Service, Inc.

THE STORY: Trouble has broken out in Seknou, an island off the coast of Tunisia. Captain Allan Larg and his wife Mollie, from Scotland, seem to be the center of intrigue. The key seems to be a famous relative Al Merhametsiz who turned pirate two centuries ago.

XIII

As Mollie and Allan went into the Gendarmerie by the garden door, they met Billon, looking tired and harassed, coming in from the street. He smiled at them wryly, and invited them into his office. "I do not want to alarm Madame," he said, "but I would like the Colonel to know the situation. At Nail it is grave. Fighting is going on, and I can get no answer either on the telephone or on the radio. I do not know the situation elsewhere, but Tunis has told me that I cannot expect any help for some days at least. In Seknou itself speeches are being made which leave no doubt but that it is intended to take advantage of the unrest on the mainland to—well—he hesitated—to exploit our weakness here. It is my belief that they will either attack us here, or possibly offer us our departure. I have gathered such French people as there are in Seknou into this building, so as to have them all under the one roof. The only ones who are missing are Pere Paleologue, who has insisted on returning to his presbytery—I passed him just now; and the manager of the airfield, and I have just sent my car for him with instructions that he should come here at once."

He paused and lit a black cigarette. "I sent this morning," he went on, "for some of the notables in the town to come and see me. They refused. I have just been to see them, but I was refused admittance. This confirms my belief that the situation is serious. I have grounds for belief that the population of Areg el Kebir, Clusium, Souk esh Shams and other villages have similar intentions. I have unfortunately no means of evacuating you or the French population. All available aircraft are apparently employed in evacuating the civil population from centers where the disturbances have already begun."

At that moment he was interrupted by some shouting and a series of shots. "Stay here!" he said, and ran out. Allan followed him quickly, and was in time to see a disheveled figure running toward them across the sunlit street, to dive sprawling past Billon's feet just inside the front door of the Gendarmerie.

Billon, who had drawn his pistol, stepped over the newcomer and out into the sun. It was too much for Allan's curiosity; and, shouting over his shoulder at Mollie to keep back, he leaped over the fallen man, and took his station at Billon's elbow just outside the door. In the sunlight he could see some white-clad figures falling back on the far side of the street, toward the old town, before Billon's furious tongue; they were armed, but not all the shooting had come from them, for two or three of Billon's police, lying on the ground, were reloading their rifles and looking grimly outward. Billon ceased his shouting, looked at his policemen, said something to them, and turned to come in. Finding Allan beside him, he looked surprised and then smiled and said, "Merci, Colonel."

He led the way into his office, with Allan and the fugitive following. Issa, a young native, had evidently had a rough handling, for blood was pouring from his left ear, and his cheap blue cotton shirt had been torn off him almost completely, leaving only a few tatters about his shoulders. The questions and answers were all in Berber, and Billon was stroking his chin, pondering.

"We will now go upstairs," he said, "to look for a moment at the people whom I have called into the Gendarmerie."

Allan and Mollie recognized immediately the Smashing Blonde and the Bon Vivant, whom they had last seen having dinner in the hotel two nights earlier, and had forgotten all about. The Smashing Blonde had been weeping, much to the detriment of her make-up. The Bon Vivant's arm was about her.

Next there was a neat businesslike woman of roughly Mollie's age, in a white cotton dress, who introduced herself as Dr. Giraud, Government gynecologist; and she introduced in turn three nuns, one very old, one middle-aged and one young and rather pretty. She also introduced her dispenser, an elderly, gray-haired Frenchman in spectacles, accompanied by a nervous little Seknougaise, who was carrying one child in her arms, while another, a little hollow boy with tousled hair and huge black eyes, kept a tight grip on her skirt.

Billon gave a very rough resume, slightly less frank, of what he had already told Allan and Mollie downstairs. The assembled company took it quietly, with the lamentable exception of the Smashing Blonde, who threw herself into the arms of Bon Vivant and threatened to howl down the substantial walls of the Gendarmerie.

Billon looked at them sardonically. Then he came across to Mollie and Allan.

"I am afraid that there has been

LETTER TO THE EDITOR May 2, 1957 Muddy, Ill.

Editor of the Register:
In defense of the incorporated Village of Muddy and the voters residing therein I want the people of Saline county to know that we are behind any serious attempt to bring to our little village the improvements and conveniences that larger municipalities consider commonplace.

Our legal political subdivision was formed so that we might have some organization in our efforts to bring about something better. Our critics contend that we will never see those improvements come about and that our hopes will fall apart in the near future. I for one, along with many others, inside and outside the village, have enough faith and confidence in the governing body of the village to believe without a doubt that those improvements WILL come. I also know that those improvements will be available to persons not within the corporate limits.

It seems that some would like to restrain us as voters of the Village of Muddy from setting our own public policy concerning certain matters. We have been insult-a misunderstanding on my part about your purposes in coming to Seknou. Pere Paleologue has been speaking to me. . . .

"We owe you an apology too, Captain, for getting in your way at such an anxious time," said Mollie.

ed personally and jointly by individuals and groups in Saline county for doing what we feel to be our own business and no one else's. Some should learn to disagree without being disagreeable. As a resident living in one of the 55 houses in the incorporated Village of Muddy I wish to say in conclusion that I have seen no groups or organizations in Saline county willing to work for advancement of conditions in our town. We feel that we are perfectly capable of setting our own policies to attain progress.

Keeping these facts in mind we want the people of Saline county to know that we feel happy at the thought that Muddy might be in the future, a more up to date and better place to live.

Gene Foster,
Muddy, Ill.

Report Griffith To Release Manager Dressen

DETROIT (AP)—Calvin Griffith, president of the Washington Senators, was due in Detroit today to discuss a player-trade and-or the possible release of manager Charlie Dressen.

Shoemaker is Suspended for Derby Mistake

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Jockey Willie Shoemaker hauled his golf clubs out of the closet today and prepared to sit out a 15-day suspension imposed on him by stewards of Churchill Downs for misjudging the finish line of last Saturday's Kentucky Derby.

Shoemaker didn't blame the stewards for suspending him—he blamed himself for the act of misjudgment that probably cost him mount, Gallant Man, victory in the race as he was nosed out by Iron Liege.

When informed of his suspension, Shoemaker said philosophically, "They think they're doing the right thing, so I guess there's little I can say about it. I just made a stupid mistake in judgment—and that's that."

Shoemaker revealed he realized his mistake the instant after he stood up the irons at the 16th pole and said the names he silently called himself couldn't be printed in a newspaper.

"Then I laid the whip to Gallant Man again, but it was too late. I didn't pull him up when I eased up in the saddle, but the change in my position caused him to hesitate momentarily — just enough that we dropped from a nose to a head behind. He didn't break stride, though."

The suspension prevented Shoemaker from possibly riding Gallant Man in the Preakness at Pimlico May 18 and the little jockey will be unable to ride until May 23 at any major track under the Churchill Downs ban.

By BILL MELTON

A comparison of winning performances in three conference track and field meets held Friday night shows the South Seven loop to hold a decisive edge.

The South Seven athletes had the better records in 11 events, the Southwest Egyptian conference excelled in three, the two tied in one and a recently organized league — Southern Illini — failed to come up with a top time or distance.

C-7 and SWE runners tied for honors in the 100-yard dash at 10.4 and South Seven boys were tops in the 220, 440, 880, mile, shot put, high jump, pole vault and the three relays.

SWE boys took honors in the low and high hurdles and the discus.

Although the weather was near perfect for football and definitely not suitable for track and field, several records were toppled.

In the SWE Alex Singer of Pinckneyville hurled the discus 157-1 to break his own record and Wale Gleghorn of Sparta cracked the low hurdle marking by taking the event in 19.85.

Five new South Seven marks were established—Dick Britton of West Frankfort running the 220 in 22.4, Mickey Steptoe of Centralia taking the 440 in 51.8, Jerry White, Centralia, ran the 880 in 1:59.2, Richard Box of Herrin ran the mile in 4:37.4 and Centralia's mile relay team took the event in 3:30.7.

The Southern Illini conference meet, held for only the second time, had six record breaking performances — Schneeman of Metropolis in the 220, Lee of McLeansboro in the 440, Willis of Eldorado in both the 880 and the mile, Mansell of McLeansboro in the high hurdles, Bruce of Norris City in the high jump, Mansell also tied the low hurdle mark.

Southern Illinois is losing a highly successful coach and a fine man with the moving of Joe Russell from the Carbondale Attucks job to Decatur.

In 14 years at the Carbondale Negro high school Russell has built some powerful cage teams and made a reputation throughout the area for topnotch sportsmanship.

This past season Attucks had one of its best clubs, although it was clobbered by a fired-up Marion outfit in tournament play. Attucks claimed among its victims during the 1956-57 season the highly regarded Mt. Vernon Rams and throughout most of the season Attucks was either rated with the top 15 or in the honorable mention list by the UP coaches group listing the state's top teams.

Home football games with Army Oct. 3, 1959 and West Virginia Oct. 1, 1960, have been announced for the University of Illinois. The two games complete the Illini schedules through 1960.

The West Virginia game begins a new series. The two schools have never played.

Illinois has not played Army since 1948 when the Cadets defeated the Illini, 26-21, in Memorial Stadium. The victory gave Army an edge in the series, which now stands 3-2-1.

Cimoli Leads Dodgers to 14-Inning, 5-4 Victory Over Braves; Cubs Beat Giants

By United Press

Gino Cimoli, the "ugly duckling" of the National League, is the latest example that sometimes the best trades in baseball are the ones that never are made.

A mere .111 hitter in 36 at-bats last season, Cimoli was the Dodgers' No. 1 trade bait all winter. They eventually kept him only because nobody else was interested.

Today, the 28-year-old native of San Francisco is batting .316, has driven in 10 runs, leads the team with 25 hits and is the hero of the Dodgers' 5-4 four-hour, 14-inning victory over the Braves Monday night. Cimoli broke it up with his fifth hit of the night, a solo homer off Red Murff to lead off the 14th frame and give Sandy Koufax his first win.

The Chicago Cubs whipped the New York Giants, 6-2, in the only other National League game Monday while the Baltimore Orioles defeated the Detroit Tigers, 8-6, in 13 innings and the Kansas City Athletics walloped the Washington Senators, 8-2, in American League games.

Brush Back Battle
At Ebbets Field umpire Lee Ballanfant called managers Walt Alston and Fred Haney to the mound to warn of a "bean ball" duel after starting pitchers Lew Burdette and Don Drysdale both were guilty of "dusters" in the first frame.

Ed Mathews homered in the first inning but Carl Furillo blasted a three-run homer in the bottom of the inning after singles by Cimoli and Sandy Amoros. Cimoli filled in in center field for the injured Duke Snider with Amoros taking over in left field.

Mathews walloped another homer in the sixth inning and Joe Adcock blasted his sixth of the season in the eighth to produce a 3-3 tie. The Braves went ahead in the 12th on singles by Mathews and Andy Pafko followed by Johnny Logan's sacrifice fly but Cimoli doubled and scored the tying run on Furillo's single in the bottom of the inning.

Then came Gino's second homer — his first also broke up an extra inning game against Robin Roberts, April 16. The victory left the Dodgers only one game behind the front-running Braves.

Kaiser Beats Giants

Don Kaiser, 22-year-old speedballer, pitched a six-hitter to gain his first victory for the Cubs and help hand Ruben Gomez his first loss after three straight wins for the Giants. Ed Winceniak's two-run single was the key blow of the Cubs' four-run sixth inning rally that broke open the game.

Captain Charles Dwight Sigsbee was in command of the battleship Maine when it was blown up in Havana harbor.

HERRIN, Ill. (AP)—Herrin High School has named one of its own graduates as head coach for the first time.

The school board selected Bob Hutchison, 30, Monday night as head football, basketball and track coach.

Hutchison succeeds Earl Lee who brought the school its first state basketball championship this year. Lee resigned to become athletic director and head basketball coach at Cahokia High School.

NOW-TRY THE BEER HARRISBURG ASKED FOR!

We asked thousands to describe their ideal beer, and now Griesedieck Brothers have brewed it... pleasantly light...completely satisfying!

Beer tastes are changing!

That's right. We talked to thousands throughout this region to find out what they wanted most in a beer. In a nutshell, here's what they said:

"We want a beer that's light, but it has to be satisfying, too!"

That was a real challenge to us.

It took all our 240 years of brewing skill and experience to come up with a light beer that would still keep its true beer character and goodness. It also took more than four million dollars worth of new equipment and more than a year of patient testing. But...

The result was well worth the effort.

Now we know we have the beer You Want—A PERFECTLY BALANCED BREW THAT'S PLEASANTLY

LIGHT, YET COMPLETELY SATISFYING. It's a clean, brisk beer that's truly in tune with the times.

One glass tells the story!

Your FIRST glass will tell you how completely satisfying it is. Most important, your SECOND glass will prove that today's G/B Beer is one you can stay with, because it's far less filling!

We didn't even put today's G/B Beer on the market until it had proved it was outstandingly preferred in local taste tests against other beers.

We're sure you'll prefer G/B.

Now—try the beer you have asked for. We're sure you'll agree that today's G/B is wonderfully light and completely satisfying—exactly the kind of beer you want!

Three in Elvis Smith Family Hurt in Separate Accidents

Three members of the Elvis Smith family of Alton, formerly of Harrisburg, were treated on the same day last week for injuries received in separate accidents.

The Smith family resided at 1008 South Granger, while living in Harrisburg, and also lived at one time in the Mt. Moriah community.

The series of accidents that put the father, a son and a daughter in the emergency room of Alton Memorial hospital, started when Mr. Smith tried to show the children how to climb a tree. In the process he strained ligaments in his chest.

This happened one evening. The following morning he decided to go to a doctor for treatment for the chest pains.

Before Mr. Smith was examined a son, Willard, 9 year old, fell while carrying some milk bottles and suffered a cut to his thumb that required hospital treatment.

Several stitches were required to close the thumb wound.

While Mr. Smith was still in the doctor's office discussing his son's injury a daughter, Barbara, 13, fell in physical education class and suffered a wrist injury. She also was taken to Alton Memorial hospital for emergency treatment.

Mr. Smith finally was examined and a rib belt was applied.

This isn't the first time the Smith's have had accidents in "chain-reaction" style. A few years ago four of their sons suffered arm fractures within a few months of each other.

Bull Dog Nine Drops 6-2 Tilt At McLeansboro

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs dropped a 6-2 decision at McLeansboro Monday afternoon and Wednesday hope to get back in the win column when they face Carrier Mills on the VFW diamond.

Sandusky, who threw a no-hitter at the Bull Dogs last week, again was on the mound for the Foxes and allowed four hits. He struck out 10 and walked two.

McLeansboro got only five hits but Harrisburg miscues gave the Foxes help. The Bull Dogs committed six errors.

Jerry King pitched the first five innings, fanning seven and walking four. Hefner whiffed one in facing three men the last frame.

Harrisburg hits were by Gary Aldridge, Mickey Stone, Jim Cummins and Bob Pavelonis. Pavelonis' blow being a triple in the seventh.

After meeting Carrier Mills, the Bull Dogs will travel to Metropolis for a Thursday night contest.
